

North Central Washington Opioid Response Conference: Pathways to Prevention

Welcome to the NCW Opioid Response Conference: Pathways to Prevention

Friday, March 15, 2019

9:00 am – 12:00

Optional Narcan Training 12:00 -12:30 pm

Our goal is to provide you with interesting and inspiring information and discussions about how you can build on local assets to mobilize opioid prevention in your community.

8:45 – 9:00 Registration and networking

9:00 – 9:05 Welcome, review agenda, and cover housekeeping items

Webinar begins

9:05 – 9:10

Regional welcome

Senator Linda Parlette, Executive Director, North Central Accountable Community of Health and Christal Eshelman, Conference Chair

Keynote Webinar Presentations

9:10 – 9:30

The Opioid Epidemic and Response in North Central WA

Dr. Charissa Fotinos
Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Washington State Health Care Authority

9:30 - 10:00

Mobilizing Rural Communities Around Opioid Prevention

Caleb Banta-Green
Professor and Interim Director, University of Washington's Alcohol and Drug Abuse Institute

10:00 – 10:10 Break

10:10 – 11:45 Local activities to mobilize opioid prevention in your community

This is the time and space where you get to work on local action – either learning new things about your community resources or figuring out how to support projects already in place.

11:45 – 12:00 Summarize and close the day

12:00 – 12:30 Optional: Narcan Training

Limited supply of Narcan Kits available from our sponsors: Amerigroup Washington, Beacon Health Options, Coordinate Care, and Molina Healthcare of Washington

In Partnership With:

Thank you to Washington State University Extension for developing the Rural Pathways to Prosperity conference delivery model and for providing training and support for this conference.

